Dear _____

Recently I was made aware of a website designed specifically to assist healthcare professional develop more sustainable practices.

I am very concerned about our environment and believe all of us have a responsibility to do what we can at home and in our businesses to minimize our carbon footprint.

I encourage you to visit www.greentoothresources.com. It offers eco-friendly ideas and products. At my next appointment, I would appreciate a few minutes with you to discuss some of the ideas from the website.

Sincerely,
